FUNCTIONAL FOOD INDUSTRY AND TRADE INC.

natural functional solutions

ABOUT US

NFS Functional Food Industry and Trade Inc. produces natural and functional foods.

The product range is composed of high quality jams, bee products and chocolates, which are functional on health.

NFS makes food more healthy by adding natural food ingredients obtained from natural sources and more clean by subtracting the additives, preservatives, colorants.

These special formulas are resulted from the attentive work of NFS Food Team composed of food engineers and doctors.

All products have a wide range of health claims such as “High protein”, “High Omega-3”, “No sugar”, “High fiber”, etc.

The production lines of all products have the BRC Quality Standard, a universally valid food quality standard.

Our high quality products are also placed in Japanese markets by our localized mark Yumbee Japan.

Do you want to intake dietary fiber, beneficial for your gut health, by only eating fruit spread in your breakfast?

Or do you want your children intake Vitamin C by a delicious chocolate rather than a tasteless syrup?

NFS makes food healthier and richer than you used to eat.

Our products have functional health claims which are effective on reducing the risk of having physical diseases.

Also we aim to widen our product range by high quality functional foods specialized on psychosocial needs.

Our team works hard on enriching foods unlike the similar ones in the market.
